

djOneUp

One Up, dj, beatmaker, passionate about soul, funk and hip hop music, traveled to many hip hop events in France and internationally. From New York to Moscow or even Kenya lately, he has built his reputation by the quality of the rare and original sounds he shared.

He also stands out for his participation in original creative projects that mix different artistic disciplines. He also collaborates with other dj's on stage, on the radio and on record projects.

Animated moreover by his desire to transmit his passion for music, he founded the association From Scratch in 2009 to develop a cultural and educational project around the practice Djing and computer music.

His musical influences are very broad and representative of his state of mind and his motivations.
